Questions	Clarification
we kindly request you to provide us the Service Tag No. of Dell Blade Chassis, Servers and Storages (your existing systems).	Please contact IT Section, MOF for the requested information.
As there is an option of providing other OEM SAN than that of existing one where the vendors need to provide SAN Switch along with the Switch  Provide the specification for the SAN Switch.	The Switch must support 10Gb iSCSI SAN system.  Please refer to Technical Specification, SAN Storage; Section V: Schedule of Requirement of SBD.
What are the additional document required if we proposed different vendor SAN and SAN Switch. Do MoF requires a comparison sheet or the compliance sheet from the proposed brand OEM?	The Principle OEM is the OEM for the SAN Storage.  Please refer to Technical Specification, SAN Storage; Section V: Schedule of Requirement of SBD.
